

Jaden King Candidate for President

My name is Jaden King. The reason I would like to be a part of the YCSGA is to build a strong foundation for it. If elected this term, I will strive to do the best possible job I can to construct a strong foundation for future members, while making sure the student's voices are heard and correctly represented throughout the process. I intend to be a servant to the students.