

Bulletin Board and Rack Card Display

Purpose

The Center for Learning and Innovation maintains organized, relevant information displays that support the academic mission of Yavapai College.

Policy Application

This policy applies to all individuals and organizations seeking to display materials on bulletin boards or in rack card holders within the Center for Learning and Innovation.

Operational Policy

The Center for Learning and Innovation displays only Yavapai College-related materials and curriculum support resources on bulletin boards and in rack card holders. All materials require approval before posting and must include a clearly visible date.
