Sedona/Verde Valley

Lifelong learning is not a pastime – it is a way of life that contributes to the well-being of seasoned adults.

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Yavapai College Sedona/Verde Valley is a vital resource made possible by dedicated members and the support of the Bernard Osher Foundation.

Our mission is to provide a wide range of college-level, non-credit lectures, short courses, and excursions for the intellectual and social cultivation of our members. We want to be around for generations of members to come.

A meaningful way to help ensure the Institute’s longevity is to Leave a Legacy for Lifelong Learning. Making a planned or estate gift to OLLI helps ensure that it will be here for lifelong learners through the ages.
